

McAninch Trail Head 2017 Camping Rates:

Member:

- Electric: Free for 2017 (except during events)
- Primitive: Free for 2017 (except during events)

Non-Member:

- Electric: $15 per night*
- Primitive: $5 per night*

*During events hosted at the trail head, event rates will apply to all.

Rates subject to change and are expected to increase for 2018.

Campers may drive to the horse park to use the shower facilities assuming they have met all trail head rules and policies.

Rules for McAninch Trail Head:

- All garbage must be hauled out, please clean up after yourself.
- Pets: Pets must be leashed and under control at all times. You will be liable for all damages or harm caused by your pet. Pets are not permitted in restrooms or shower facilities.
- All manure and horse waste to be scattered in weeds. (Use weeds towards covered bridge side of property).
- All fires are to be attended at all times and thoroughly extinguished when not in use or when not attended.
- No horses are to be left unattended.
- No horses in pavilions.
- No primitive camping in electric sites.
- Drive slowly on driveway and be respectful of all neighbors.
- Pavilions are for shared use, please be kind and share with other campers.
- No unauthorized use of FAHA property. Those violating this policy will be reported to law enforcement for trespassing and banned from the property.
- Anyone found defacing/vandalizing FAHA property including gates, trails, cutting down trees, etc will be reported to law enforcement and banned from the property.
- Use of FAHA property is for equestrian camping, day riding, and FAHA approved events. Others using the Baker Trail System or US Army corps property must park in areas that do not interfere with camping use.
- No use of ATVs, Tractors, or recreational vehicles on Trails or FAHA property without approval. Use of motorized vehicles is prohibited outside of designated camping areas.
- Campers and trail riders assume all risk of loss or injury to person or property associated with horse sports and activities
- All fees are to be paid in the lock box or submitted in advance to FAHA . Please only submit payments by check, leave no cash.